Our first match of the year and the weather gods were not nice! Bill Urbank, David Schultz, and Mike Carroll helped me set and we had blue skies and sunny. We started shooting and the temp dropped, the rain started and it got windy! Very damp and chilly. I think I saw Iryna with a long down coat on for awhile!

Rumor has it that David Schultz is moving and we will be seeing him at LHA in Bellefontaine. Long time shooter Victor Aume and his wife Laura came back from a way too long absence and shot today! They both did excellence considering the long layoff. Hope we see them at all the matches. Mike Carroll brought a group of new guys, Barry, Eric, and Lia and although they didnt shoot a match they did plink all day and got exposed to shooting silhouettes. Mark B. brought his nephew Cody out to try his new Ruger single six with the fancy Bomar sights. Anastasiia found out she really loves the .44 magnum and hit four pigs in a row out of five. That girl will be a fantastic shooter. She handles that .44 like it was a .22 hornet.

I showed Carl how to hold his PAS gun so I will probably never beat him again.

Mike tried 1/5 scale and decided the big ones will be easy from now on.

Gordon Lash shot an amazing perfect/perfect score of 40/10 in SB UAS. He backed it up with a 39/6 in unl. His spotter might be to blame for that one.

Laura Aume edged Iryna by one in a tight race for high Lady.

Thanks to Bill, Mike and David for helping me set up and The Lash boys and Mike for helping me tear down.

Next match is May 9, which is Mothers day and all ladies shoot for free!
